

lial/lum - a suffix found on NOUNS borrowed from Latin (especially derivatives of verbs)

-aneous - forming adjectives from Latin words

Vocabulary Practice Test

Directions: Use the following words to complete the sentences below.

fat adipose sharp, acute oxytocin birth chemical epithelial skin surface deciduous falling off voluntary under control subcutaneous skin sebaceous dark melanin chemical sebum/oil pertaining to tympenic drug anaerobic without air orbital circle albinos white octandrious food alimentary smell olfactory fat obese split schizophrenia mind squamous scale dextrorotatory right villi hairy rotating

1. Dextrorotatory refers to movement to the right.
2. Schizophrenia is a mental disorder, sometimes referred to as "split personality".
3. The darker the skin complexion, the more melanin is present in the skin.
4. Our bodies are covered with epithelial tissue.
5. Fish are covered with numerous squamous cells.
6. The sebaceous glands secrete oil.
7. The subcutaneous layer is located beneath the surface of the skin.
8. The orbital cavity is the opening in the skull that surrounds the eye.
9. Skeletal muscles are under our control. These are voluntary muscles.
10. Oxytocin is a hormones used to stimulate the muscles to contract during childbirth.
11. Food passes through the alimentary canal.
12. The deciduous teeth "fall out" at an early age.
13. Obese people have an excess amount of adipose tissue.
14. Albinos have very light (white) skin due to the lack of skin pigments.
15. Villi are hair-like projections located in the small intestine.
16. The tympenic membrane is located in the eardrum.
17. The olfactory nerve is a sensory organ for smell.
18. A flower with eight stamens is called octandrious.
19. It isn't healthy to have excessive adipose tissue.
20. Anaerobic respiration takes place in the absence of oxygen.