

EXERCISE 6-5

- A. Notate the following chords for the specified instruments. Each chord is written at concert pitch, so transpose as needed for the performers. You do not need to use key signatures, but use the correct clef for each instrument. Note that the instruments are listed in score order, the order used in Appendix A, which is not always the same as order by pitch.

The exercise consists of five systems of musical notation, each representing a different chord. The instruments are arranged in score order across the staves in each system. The first system shows a single staff with five instruments: Fl., Vla., T. Sax., Vl., and Hn. in F. The second system shows three staves: Fl., Ob., and Hn. in F. The third system shows three staves: Clar. in B \flat , Tpt. in B \flat , and Vc. The fourth system shows two staves: Trb. and Bsn. The fifth system shows two staves: A. Sax and Hn. in F.
